COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, Nov. 20.

THE upward movement in Cotton has gained strength during the past week, leading to a decidedly more cheerful tone in business, and although the actual movements of produce have been small there is at last some prospect of trade assuming a more active basis. In Freights there is no improvement in rates as yet, but there is decidedly more doing and the surplus tonnage is gradually being absorbed. Exchange has rallied from the previous depression and has recovered about ¼d. per rupee on the week, rendering the position of importers somewhat better and encouraging dealers to operate more freely in goods for forward shipment. Money continues easy and Government Paper is firm and advancing. Shares are steady.

MONEY.—Although the general tone of business is better and gives promise of a more active demand for money eventually, actual finance requirements at the moment continue very limited, and the market remains as easy as ever. The last Bank of Bombay return indeed showed a material increase in the Cash Balance and under other circumstances would have favoured lower rates of discount, but with money freely available on Government Paper at 2 per cent. there is no room for further reduction.

EXCHANGE.—The market for Sterling has undergone a complete change this week, the reaction which we fresh adowed in our last weekly report, having been fully as rapid as the previous fall. The lowest point was touched on the morning of last mail day when with Bar Silver in London, according to private telegrams at 49½d. per oz., demand Bank Bills were quoted at 1s. 6¼d. to 15-16d., and 3 month's Credits at 1s. 7½d. to 9-32d. per rupee. On Saturday, however, when business opened for this mail, there was an evident feeling that rates had fallen to an unwarrantably low level, and quotations were advanced 1-16d. all round followed later in the day by an additional 1-32d. consequent on firmer advices from Calcutta. On Monday a further rise of 1-16d. was established bringing demand Bank Bills up to 1s. 7¼d., and 3 month's Credits to 1s. 7 7-16d.; but at this level a temporary pause ensued, and with the exception of some of the banks raising their drawing rate for demand 1-32d., yesterday no change occurred until to-day. This morning, however, brought us as usual the result of the weekly biddings for Council drafts in London, viz. :—15 lacs in bills at 1s. 7½d. and 8 lacs in telegraphic transfer at 1s. 7 5-32d. followed by special allotments of 9½ lacs in bills, and 1½ lacs in transfers at 1s. 7 5-32d. to 1s. 7 3-16d. These rates being decidedly higher than had been anticipated here, and Bar Silver at the same time coming ¼d. dearer at 49¾d. opening quotations to-day were at 1-32d. advance for private paper. With strong telegrams from Calcutta, however, and more private bills offering owing to the increased activity in Cotton we close to a further rise of 1-32d. all round, making closing quotations for ready bills as follows :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 3-16d.	per rupee.
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 7¼d.	"
Do. Three months' sight	1s. 7½d.	"
Credits do. do.	1s. 7¼d.	"
Do. Six do.	1s. 7 11-16d.	"
Francs Three do.	20¾	"
Do. Six do.	20⅞	"

A considerable business has been done during the week in private paper for future delivery at generally an advance of 1-32d. per rupee per month on current ready rates, and at the moment the tone of the market looks firm as it did early in the week. Unless the activity in Cotton continues, however, we should be inclined to think the recovery has already gone about as far as the existing surroundings of the market warrant, as we are yet a long way off important movements of produce. The Cotton crop in fact is fully a month late and that after all is what really effects our exchange market, especially with the present dull ness in Wheat and other leading articles of export.

GOVERNMENT PAPER.—To begin with the enquiry for paper was exceedingly slack and rates receded until on Monday some sales of Four were made at Rs. 99½. From that point, however, a firmer feeling set in accompanied by an advance in values, on Tuesday to Rs 99 11-16, yesterday to Rs 99¾ and to-day we close at Rs. 99¾ to 15-16 buyers. In Fours-and-a-half the improvement has only been from Rs. 102½ to Rs. 102⅝, but this quotation is more or less nominal, only occasional transactions taking place in the denomination. Cheap money here renders the position of the market very firm, and it is not unlikely additional support may come from London where a reduction in the Bank of England rate seems probable. At the same time, according to our present lights par is a high level for 4 per cent paper to be maintained at for any length of time.

SHARES.—The market has been wanting in activity latterly, but there is nevertheless a fairly well supported. In Banks there are few transactions reported except in Bank of Bombays which are Rs. 5 higher at Rs. 757½. Spinning Mills are steady as a rule, but values are slightly irregular. There is a decline of Rs. 25 in Great Eastern and Rs. 10 in Alliance, Mahalukshmi and Oriental, and Rs. 7½ in Dhurrumsey and Manockjee Petit, whilst some few companies are quoted Rs. 5 higher. The advance in Cotton is against the mills otherwise their position had improved considerably with the better demand for their yarns and cloth. In Press companies there are few changes. Colabas are quoted Rs. 25 higher, but there is a decline of Rs. 2½ in Berar and Bombay, Rs. 5 in Mercantile, and Rs. 10 in Prince of Wales. Amongst Miscellaneous concerns the chief movement has been in Bombay Burmah Trading Co.'s shares which close to an advance of Rs. 275 in old, and Rs. 40 in new, at Rs. 5,075 and Rs. 1,040 respectively. Bapty Bros. Flour Mills have advanced to Rs. 70 premium, consequent on the favorable character of their report which shows a profit at the rate of about 25 per cent per annum on the first year's working. Bombay Flour Mills are in request at Rs. 50 premium, with no sellers. Kemp & Co., Ld., have advanced to Rs. 326, Cooper, Madon & Co. to Rs. 130, Port Canning Land Co.'s shares have receded to Rs. 332½ per share.

IMPORTS.

PIECE-GOODS.—A somewhat better tone has been apparent latterly in the bazaar, the reports in circulation regarding some of the up-country dealers having proved to be incorrect. Increased confidence, however, has not added materially to the extent of business doing, the clearences from second-hands for the week being again only estimated at about 3,000 packages, whilst prices with few exceptions are quite unchanged. The improvement in stealing exchange meanwhile has materially benefited dealers who were largely uncovered for remittance against previous purchases, and they are accordingly more disposed to enter on new business. Higher prices in Manchester have prevented limits going through to a large extent, but the tendency of things is distinctly in favor of more activity than has been the case for the past few weeks.

TWIST.—Owing to the advance at home sellers of English Yarns are generally asking an advance of ¼ anna per lb. to arrive, but as rates on the spot are not quotably higher only a small business has resulted. The tone, however, is very firm and in favor of an improvement stocks generally being moderate. In Local Yarns a good business has again been done the week's transactions being estimated at about 4,000 packages, mainly in the lower numbers from 10s. to 16s.

METALS.—Copper remains unaltered in value at Rs. 39-8 to Rs. 39-12 per cwt. for Braziers, the decline at home rendering buyers indisposed to operate freely with stocks so liberal as they are. Yellow Metal is also unaltered at say Rs. 31-8 to Rs. 31-12 for Braziers. Supplies are large and the demand slow. For Iron the enquiry is slightly better and prices are the turn in favor of sellers.

COALS.—The market is firm for near Coals of which there are no sellers, but for distant shipment the tone is quiet on the basis of Rs. 16½ per ton alongside for both West Hartley and Cardiff, December-January shipment. On the bunder a considerable business has been done at Rs. 18 for Cardiff, and Rs. 18 to Rs. 18½ for Davison's West Hartley. Stocks are being reduced to a very small compass and there is no Coal afloat for the market.

EXPORTS.

COTTON.—With active markets in Liverpool and a good enquiry from the Continent, we have had daily hardening markets here with a considerable business passing. Prices have advanced on the week Rs. 5 to Rs. 7 per candy, and even at that there are decidedly more buyers than sellers the lateness of the crop rendering dealers indifferent about contracting forward for new Cotton, whilst the selection in old stuff is becoming very indifferent. We should put the buying for export during the week at about 3,000 bales old and 5,000 bales new. The former has been mainly made up of old Bhownuggers and Dholleras at Rs. 175 to Rs. 178 for F. G. F., and Rs. 183 to 185 for Good; and the latter of Broach at Rs. 215 to Rs. 220 for good March delivery, and Bengals on the basis of Rs. 150 to 155 for good January delivery.

New Crop.—Some small lots of Bengals are now beginning to arrive the quality of which, however, is very unsatisfactory, and sellers of good and over will have great difficulty in completing November shipments. Next month the arrivals will be more liberal, but the quality is not well spoken of and there are no sellers of "fine." In the Omra districts picking has now commenced on a small scale, but there will be no quantity of Cotton available until after the turn of the year. The quality promises to be much better than last season on the average. Regarding Broach and Dholleras there is nothing special to report except that both growths are making fair progress although unusually far back for the time of year.

The movements of Cotton to date show the following comparisons with the two previous years :—

DEFECTIVE OR FAILING SIGHT.

THE sense of sight is so valuable that the importance of perfect and carefully adjusted spectacles can scarcely be overrated; although the wearing of single eye-glasses should be strictly avoided, we have the highest medical authority, confirmed by daily experience, that imperfect glasses, together with the haphazard plan of selection generally employed, are frequent causes of irremediable injury to the sight; and as no present economy can compensate for such a loss, it behoves all to be cautious how they are tempted to use the common pebble or glass spectacles now so generally sold.

For the guidance of those who are using pebble spectacles, it may be stated that when the pebbles are cut against the grain, and not polished on the principle which has been universally declared the most appropriate based on scientific research, they are injurious to the sight.

Unadvisable as the unnecessary wearing of spectacles undoubtedly is, the common notion that their use should be postponed to the utmost is proved beyond dispute to be a grave mistake.

Being in possession of all the optical instruments taken over by us from Dr. A. Menist, we are not only in a position to suit the eye sight to perfection, but to supply different accommodations for each eye which so frequently are needed.

The Bombay Gazette

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1884.

MR. OLLIVANT'S Administration Report for 1883-84, the salient points of which we published yesterday, is a clear and interesting record of a year's progress in Bombay. The superficial critics who have made the frequency of adjournments of Municipal meetings for want of a quorum, a theme for disquisitions on the want of public spirit on the part of those who constitute the Municipal bodies, will be silenced for a while by the statistics, which show that in the past year eighty-six meetings of the Corporation were convened and sixty-three held, while the Town Council had fifty-six meetings, and committees of both bodies met thirty-three times—in all 152 meetings, or at the rate of three a week. The number is, in truth, excessive, and constitutes a serious tax upon the time of members of the Municipality. It is to be hoped that the business, heavy as it is, which has to be got through will not in future occupy so much valuable time. We are sustained in this hope by the fact that there is a strong set of opinion in Bombay in favour of brevity in the debates, and the abatement of the crying sin of unaccustomed orators, that of leaving nothing unsaid. There are signs of improvement in this respect, and as the pressure of business continues to increase, the mere force of things will accelerate a much-needed reform. At seven of the meetings held the question of amending the civic constitution so as to bring it abreast of the principles laid down in the Resolution on Local Self-government issued by the Government of India, was very carefully considered, and the amendments proposed have been submitted to the Government of Bombay with a view to legislation. No very sweeping changes have been asked for. The existing constitution is accepted as satisfactory, the emendations suggested being confined chiefly to matters of detail. It is decided upon in principle to Government, while the Municipality will provide for primary education in Bombay and for the maintenance of the hospitals, but details have not yet been settled. The report alludes to the discussions which took place on Dr. Blanc's proposal to introduce the Mont de Piété system into Bombay, so as to save the poor from the frauds and extortion of which they are now too often the victims at the hands of the unlicensed pawnbrokers who advance money on good security at an exorbitant interest. The proposal was not agreed to, on account of the practical difficulty which was anticipated in regard to the working of such an undertaking with the machinery at the disposal of the Municipality. The Corporation recorded its opinion that it was advisable that the Government should bring the pawnbroking business of Bombay under legal regulations based on the English model. The business in question is, however, carried on by the Marwarrees in a fashion which it would be very difficult indeed to bring under any effectual supervision. However, the consideration so fully bestowed upon this interesting question is in itself an evidence of the zeal and care which the members of the Municipality bestow upon matters of public interest.

The finances of the city are in a satisfactory condition, the receipts showing a steady increase. The same may be said, it is true, of the expenditure, but good value is procured for the money laid out, and the city is being permanently benefited by the increased outlay. The receipts for the past year amounted to thirty-seven lakhs thirty-seven thousand rupees, giving a surplus of one lakh eighty thousand above the estimate, and an increase of sixty-six thousand rupees above the income of the previous years. The expenditure was thirty-seven lakhs fifteen thousand, which was less by about five-and-a-half lakhs than the estimate. There was an increase in the income under the head of liquor licenses, tobacco duty, town duties, and miscellaneous; but there was a slight falling off in the consolidated rate and in the wheel tax, the latter showing a diminution of seventy-two thousand. The decline in house duty and wheel tax would appear to argue a falling off in the general prosperity, but the increase in the octroi and in the receipts from tobacco and liquor licenses tells a different story. During the year new loans amounting to the considerable aggregate of forty-four lakhs have received legal sanction. The money will be devoted to various sanitary and other works of public improvement which were decided upon during the last three years. As our readers know, the Tansa project has been resolved upon in addition to the works provided for in the forty-four lakhs just mentioned, and the new water-supply will cost a crore of rupees. It appears that there has been an increase during the year in the number of properties on the assessment book from 25,848 to 29,867. The letting value of property in the city is estimated at two crores. The increased activity of the Assessment Department since its reorganization is indicated by the fact that there were 1,406 cases of complaint against the department for over-valuation, the value of the property to which the complaints referred amounting to upwards of eleven lakhs. Considerable reductions were made on appeal. It may be taken for granted that there is now very little ground for the charge of laxity in assessing property which was at one time brought against the department. The Municipal Commissioner states that the assessor and his subordinates are working with great zeal and industry. Attention is drawn to what is very justly termed a patent absurdity in the Municipal Act, which provides that no bill shall be issued until all complaints have been heard; the result is that nothing can be done to collect the revenue from property valued at a crore and twenty-two lakhs, about which there is no dispute, until contentions relative to property valued at eleven lakhs have been disposed of.

The list of works in progress out of loans and current revenue is very long, and when they are finished the gain to public health and comfort will be very great. They include the augmentation of the water-supply from the Vehar and Tooisee Lakes, drainage works, street improvements, and extensions, some of them on a large scale, and many minor matters, too numerous to mention here. THE VICEROY'S TOUR.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

AGRA, Nov. 20.

The Viceroy went to-day to Muttra, travelling there by special train. His Excellency was accompanied by Sir Alfred Lyall and their respective staffs.

He arrived at Muttra at one o'clock, where he was received by the Commissioner and other officers and a number of native gentlemen. A Municipal Committee presented an address to His Excellency on his arrival in a shamiana outside the railway station, which was prettily decorated.

The Viceroy in replying took up the principal points of the address, and thanked the Committee for their expressions of loyalty to the Queen and their kindly sentiments towards himself. The devoted attachment of Her Majesty's Indian subjects was, he said, a brighter jewel in her Royal treasury than the Koh-i-noor itself. He was thankful to say his administration, with a few insignificant exceptions, was one of unbroken peace Under the security of a firm and just administration civilization progressed, commerce and industry flourished, and enabled any Government to devote itself to its higher duties and secure true progress. The Viceroy agreed there was great scope for the further progress of railway communications. The proposals made by the Government in this respect had been endorsed by the House of Commons, and would be carried out with convenient speed under the fostering care of the Hon. Mr. Hope. Remarking on the terms of esteem and confidence in which the address referred to Sir A. Lyall, the Viceroy said his conspicuous abilities and wide experience eminently fitted him for his high position, in which he had entirely fulfilled the Viceroy's expectations when he appointed him. The Viceroy could not altogether accept the credit for the skilful management of the finances, which was mainly due to Sir E. Baring and Sir A. Colvin, who had devoted themselves with the utmost zeal and ability to the fulfilment of their important functions. The Viceroy congratulated the Municipal Committee on the success of their management. He was gratified to learn that during the recent elections at Muttra nearly the whole voting population came to the poll and recorded their votes. He believed that the system applied with so much ability and earnestness by Sir Alfred Lyall would secure substantial progress in training people in the direction of their local affairs.

The Viceroy and party then drove to Bandraban in carriages escorted by a troop of the 3rd Dragoon Guards. Here they visited the temples, and were entertained at luncheon by Seth Lakhman Dass, who had asked a number of the residents of Muttra to meet the Viceroy. Sir Alfred Lyall and party returned to Muttra at 4 o'clock, and arrived at Agra shortly after 6.

THE HYDERABAD RIOTS.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

SECUNDERABAD, Nov. 20.

The Commission has adjourned till Monday, when its decision will be arrived at. Yesterday Sultan Nawaz Jung sent a petition to the Nizam, and a copy to the Resident. The petition shows that the row commenced by the police thrashing Nawaz Jung's elephant, which ran home followed by a few Arab attendants. The Chief warned his men to keep the peace and keep within doors, which they did. The Chief reported the conduct of the police to the Minister the same evening. It was false that he threatened to fight. He states that his men were not implicated in the riots; if any were, they took part in it without his knowledge and against his orders. The whole affair had been grossly exaggerated by the Government on the statements of the police. Only one peon had been killed, and one wayfarer. The chief challenges inquiry into the charges of disloyalty against him, either in the past or the present. He protests against the constitution of the Commission, against his not being allowed counsel, and against the secrecy of the whole proceedings. He complains that it is ought to make him the aggressor instead of the aggrieved party, and appeals to the Nizam for justice.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, accompanied by Captain Shepherd, aide-de-camp, arrived at the Byculla railway station at 6-45 p.m. yesterday by the G. I. P. Railway from Poona. His Excellency had dispensed with the attendance of the heads of departments and of a guard of honour. From the station His Excellency drove over in his carriage and pair, under the escort of two sowars of his body-guard, to Government House, Malabar Point, where he temporarily resides. A salute of fifteen guns will be fired at sunrise to-day in connection with His Excellency's arrival.

WE are requested to announce that gentlemen wishing to inscribe their names in His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief's book are invited to do so at the Military Secretary's Office, Army Headquarters, Camp Esplanade, where the book will be kept on and after the 21st November. A large number of the leading members of the Hindu community had assembled at the station to witness the departure. Before he left large garlands of flowers were placed round his neck, and as the train steamed out of the station his friends reiterated their good wishes for his welfare.

THE mortality from cholera in Bombay, though still very considerable, seems to be decreasing. During the week ending the 18th inst, 14 deaths were registered against 18 during the previous week. Four of the deaths occurred among native Christians. There was also one fatal case of small-pox.

THE revenue of the Bombay Municipality for the week ending the 8th inst. amounted to Rs. 31,40,625, and the expenditure to Rs. 31,19,664.

Crops slightly damaged by blight in one taluka of Ahmednuggur. Fever general; cholera, small-pox, and cattle-disease in parts of seven districts."

A CORRESPONDENT writes to us from Kirwi' N.-W. P.:—The old and new cemetries are in a disgraceful state. Long grass and vegetation are allowed to grow in luxuriance, forming harbouring places for snakes and other creeping things.

THE Diario de Governo of Lisbon notifies that His Majesty the King of Portugal has been pleased to confer on Dr. J. A. da Gama the distinction of the order Commenda de Christo.

WE give below extracts of two Resolutions issued by the Lisbon Government censuring the Archbishop of Goa for publishing the encyclical letter of the Pope Humanum Genus in the Official Boletin without previously receiving the beneplacito regio, and also the Governor-General for consenting to the publication. From the Lisbon papers it appears that the Cabinet has assumed an attitude of no surrender in regard to the ecclesiastical jurisdiction question, and that the Resolutions have been passed to prevent the execution of the Papal decree by direct communication from the Holy See to the Archbishop of Goa. The crisis is approaching, and its final issue will be regarded with interest, not to say anxiety, by the Catholics in India interested in this question. The Resolution against the Archbishop says:—

Taking into consideration that a prelate so conspicuous for his knowledge and virtues as is the Rev. Archbishop of Goa, Primate of the East, could not have proceeded in a manner so irregular as he did unless it was by a precipitation or error of judgment, which even then on a subject so important could not be allowed to pass without remark, His Majesty the King orders that the Revd. Archbishop of Goa, Primate of the East, should be informed, through the Minister of Marine, of the displeasure with which the official publication given by the said prelate to the encyclical letter Humanum Genus has been regarded, and the hope entertained that such an occurrence will not be repeated, lest His Majesty should be compelled to proceed against him with such energy as the case may demand, and to use means which, though they may deeply grieve His Majesty, he will not hesitate to adopt, be it against whosoever, to maintain due respect for the laws of the kingdom and the royal prerogatives.

The Resolution against the Governor-General of Goa says:—

It is lamentable that the Governor-General of Portuguese India should have consented to the publication of a document so irregularly in the official paper of the Government, forgetting for a while the salutary prescriptions of the Royal order dated 8th August, 1863. Considering, however, the high qualities of which the said Governor has given repeated proofs, it is presumed that he did not, in this instance, proceed with the full knowledge of the responsibility. His Majesty the King therefore orders, through the Minister of Marine that the Governor-General be informed of the Resolution which this day has been addressed to the Archbishop of Goa, in order that the said Governor do publish it in the Official Gazette, and also recommend that in future the greatest care be taken to avoid the repetition of these disagreeable proceedings.

COLONEL STAUNTON, the Director-General of State Railways, has taken a run up to Sibi and rejoined the Public Works Minister at Ferozepore for the remainder of his tour.

IT is proposed to build a new Viceregal residence at Simla, and it is said that a despatch on the subject has gone home to the Secretary of State. Some eight years ago Lord Lytton projected a new Government house on the Observatory Hill and Major Cole, R.E., drew a picturesque design for it, which was eventually superseded by a less poetical but more practical design of Mr. Irwin's. The Allahabad paper understands that the present proposal contemplates either pulling down half Peterhoff in order to enlarge it considerably, or proceeding with the new building on the Observatory Hill. The chief advantages claimed for the Peterhoff scheme are that it would cost only about 3½ lakhs of rupees, refurnishing and refurbishing included; that it could be carried out quickly; that the houses and offices for the personal staff are already there; and that the position is relatively convenient for the general public. Then, of course, the original cost as well as the recurrent expenses for refurnishing, entertainment, and establishment would be much less at the remodelled Peterhoff than in a more palatial abode. It should be mentioned, however, that the present Foreign Office—which is described as a mere shanty—would have to make way in carrying out some of the extensions, and a new one be provided.

THE Pioneer learns that the following changes are about to occur among the officers of the Financial Department. Mr. Larpent vacates his special appointment of Local Auditor to the Bengal Government, and will be succeeded by Mr. E. M. Palmer. Mr. Palmer will be replaced at Hyderabad by Mr. Biddulph from Allahabad, and Mr. Dobbie from Lahore succeeds Mr. Biddulph. Mr. Brereton, Assistant Accountant-General at Allahabad, proceeds at once on one year's furlough, and Mr. C. J. Rivett-Carnac, who has recently returned from furlough, succeeds Major Van-Someren as Assistant Comptroller-General for Forests. Mr. F. Atkinson, who has been acting for the last six months for Mr. Palmer as Comptroller, Hyderabad, returns to Calcutta, and acts as Assistant to Mr. Rule, the Comptroller of Indian Treasuries. Mr. Biggs proceeds from Calcutta to Lahore, and relieves Mr. Dobbie as Deputy Accountant-General there; and Mr. Larpent probably goes from Calcutta to Madras. In Madras Mr. Clogstoun, the Accountant-General, has returned from privilege leave, and Mr. Donald has reverted to Deputy Accountant-General. Other transfers are likely to occur when Mr. S. Jacob, C.S, Deputy Accountant-General of Bengal, returns from leave in January next.

TELEGRAPHIC WEATHER REPORT.

CALCUTTA, Nov. 20.—The barometer has ceased falling except in the southern half of the peninsula and locally at Sialkote, Bareilly, and Agra. It has risen pretty uniformly over nearly the whole of Northern India. Kurrachee shows the highest pressure, and Jubbulpore the next. The usual axis of high pressure characteristic of the cold weather has been established across Central India. The winds to the north have been light from the north and the north-west, and those to the south are chiefly from the north-east. At Sialkote the barometer has fallen, and the skies are cloudy; and on the Madras coast, especially at Masulipatam, there is a slight increase of cloud, wind, and sea. With these local exceptions, the weather is fine and clear everywhere. Except a slight shower at Quetta, there is no rain reported.

H. E. THE GOVERNOR AT NOWANUGGUR.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

NOWANUGGUR, Nov. 17.

THIS morning was devoted by Sir James Fergusson to visiting the durbar palace and the mint. Within the grounds are situated a number of stalls and stables for His Highness's carriages, including one of silver plate, and also for his horses and elephants. The Rath, a big four-wheeled car, drawn by a couple of elephants, was brought out for His Excellency's inspection. It has three compartments, each surmounted by a dome, and is used by the Jam Saheb when he goes out in state. Another car, which is a smaller and plainer edition of the first one, is intended for dancing-girls, who amuse royalty by means of their art on the road. The heir-apparent to the throne of Nowanuggur, a child of about three years old, was among the objects of interest shown to the Governor. The palace, like many other old structures of its kind, is a collection of staircases, corridors, rooms, terraces, squares, and balconies, thrown together after the approved Oriental fashion. A room on the first storey is used as a storehouse for articles of gold and silver, which serve in no small degree to enhance the lustre of royalty on state occasions. There is a howdah resting on gold-plated poles, and beside it are a fan, an umbrella-and a peacock feathered chauri, glittering with gilt and embroidery. There are also gold and silver trappings, together with queer-shaped neck and ear ornaments, for the adornment of the horses and elephants belonging to the royal stables. One also sees here a collection of native arms, now carried by royalty presumably with the object of keeping up the traditions of past times, when these weapons were something more than mere ornaments. For the rest, there are dishes of gold in which His Highness prefers to take his meals on occasions, as also goblets and water jugs of the same metal. While looking round the room, one feels that here, at least, all that glitters is gold. The artistic taste of His Highness appears to be exceedingly simple, the portraits which are displayed in one of the rooms being said to be only the work of masons and bricklayers employed on the building.

The hall in which a durbar was held in the afternoon is of course the best part of the mansion, erected and fitted up during the régime of the present Jam. At the upper end is a canopy supported on glittering gilt pillars. Beneath it was a rich sofa for His Excellency and His Highness, and there were about two dozen chairs for the rest.

A large crowd of people had assembled outside the palace; and at the entrance there was drawn up a company of the Jam's body-guard and infantry regiment. There were also a number of Arab retainers, with their swords and match-locks, stationed in the compound. His Excellency, who was accompanied by General Annesley and members of his staff, was received at the palace with all honours, and was escorted by the Jam Saheb to the durbar hall. After some dancing and singing by nautch-girls, His Highness placed a garland round the neck of the Governer and his party. His Excellency then, accompanied by the Jam and the Political Agent, Colonel West, drove to the place where the foundation-stone of a girls' school was to be laid. A large marquée was erected for the accommodation of the girls, who had all squatted on the ground. There were some hundreds of them, and they looked particularly bright and happy. There are already two girls' schools in Nowanuggur, numbering about 500 pupils. It was satisfactory to find that already a few females have been found able to do the work of teachers in these schools, and it is expected eventually to place these institutions entirely under female management. The school building has been designed by Mr. W. S. M'Clelland, the State Engineer, and the work will also be carried out by him. It appeared from the speech read by the Dewan on behalf of His Highness that the Durbar has been exerting itself of late to develope and encourage the education of girls in the State. The stone was laid with some ceremony. A Brahmin painted the Jam's forehead with ochre, and kept muttering prayers from the Shashtra. Navratan, that is, nine different kinds of precious stones, with coins and copies of the Bombay Gazette and other papers, were placed in the pit before the stone was lowered. After songs, every one of the girls was presented with a saree.

The Dewan said on behalf of the Jam:—

Your Excellency,—Let me heartily thank your Excellency for your kindly consenting to come here to-day. I consider your Excellency's visit to my capital as a great honour done to me, and from the great interest that you evince in the cause of female education, I could think of no better way of commemorating it than by asking your Excellency to lay the foundation-stone of a girls' school. There is an ever growing appreciation of the benefits of female education in my State, which is clearly evidenced by the accessions the number of girls studying in my State always receives. Of late the numbers in the school before which we are met have increased so much that the accommodation children has there come a desideratum for some time, to supply which there could be no better opportunity than that fortunately afforded by your Excellency's auspicious visit. The plan of the building prepared by my able engineer, Mr. M'Clelland, you have seen, and I need not enlarge upon it. Suffice it to say that it will afford all the ordinary conveniences of light, air, &c., as a girls' school-house would require, and ample accommodation for the young children for whom it is intended. I beg to be allowed to avail myself of this opportunity to note in brief the progress that female education has made in my State. For many years I have been alive to the immense advantages of female education, and so far back as about a quarter of a century ago I inaugurated it in my State by establishing a girls' school in this town. Three similar institutions were afterwards opened in three of my principal talukas, viz., Joria, Khambhalia, and Kalawad. The number of students in the school here continually increased and latterly became so large that I was glad to open another girls' school in another quarter of the town in 1882. Considering the greater advantages possessed by female over male teachers in developing the minds and forming the characters of little girls, in 1879 I opened a female normal class in connection with the girls' schools. All females learning in that class are paid by my State, and it is now held in the No. 1 school. The effort has so far succeeded that we have now in the two schools three female teachers passed in the highest standards. I confidently hope that the time is not very distant when we shall be able to appoint these, or others that may hereafter be trained, as headmistresses in the girls' schools. The aggregate number of female children now being educated in my State is nearly 800, of which nearly 500 are in the two schools here; and I believe that, generally speaking the success of the schools under the wise management of your Excellency's Education Department is very remarkable. I suppose they are about the best attended in the whole of Kattywar, and, I am proud to say, second to none in efficiency. My warm acknowledgments are due to Mrs. M'Clelland for the deep interest she has been kindly evincing in the education of the girls of my capital, all the needle-work in the school being most attentively supervised by her. She has, besides, been of invaluable help in developing the habits of neatness, regularity, &c., of the girls. I am greatly indebted to your Excellency and the other gentlemen present, for the trouble they have taken to come here to-day for laying a substantial foundation of female education in my State. Let me now request your Excellency to proceed to the ceremony of laying the foundation.

His Excellency then said:—

I have come here with much pleasure to fulfil your Highness's desire of laying the foundation-stone of the girls' school which your Highness, with your usual liberality, proposes to erect. Your kindness and liberality to all dependent on you are well known to me, as also the hearty welcome which you give to all strangers, especially to European gentlemen, who visit your State. It has been a source of regret to me that painful circumstances interfered with the visit which it was my intention to pay you more than two years ago. But now I am rejoiced that before my departure from India I have been able to come here to partake of your hospitality and to make your acquaintance. I trust that your Highness will be spared for many years to enjoy life and to continue your kindness to your subjects. You have always been a warm friend and ally of the British Government, and such I am sure you will remain. I wish your Highness most heartily all happiness in your person and your family, and I trust that to every way the blessings of providence may be with you. (Applause.) I forgot to say that all praise is due to Mrs. M'Clelland for her kind and unlooked-for supervision of female education in the city, and she therefore deserves your Highness' liberal encouragement.

In the evening there was a banquet given to His Excellency in the palace. The Kotha and Lakhota palaces were extensively illuminated, the effect of the light upon the water surrounding these buildings being very pleasant. Fireworks concluded the festivities. His Excellency proceeds to-morrow morning to Rajkote.

THE MATRICULATION EXAMINATIONS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I regret to be obliged to remind you that you have at times written rather disparagingly of the local Matriculation Examinations. Fortunately this year's examiners have put it in the power of admirers of our University to show that the Matriculation is not such a poor affair after all. Let anyone read the Arithmetic and Algebra paper set this morning, and he will be transported with admiration for our little University, which can afford to demand so much knowledge from lads of sixteen years or thereabouts. Some years ago I passed the Matriculation Examination myself, and I was pretty strong in Arithmetic and Algebra, but I would have shuddered then at the bare sight of the questions put to the present generation of aspirants to Matriculation honours. Perhaps I am wrong in inferring that the candidates who have sat for the last three days in divers places in this Presidency under the eyes of their terrible examiners are very sharp, merely because they have stiff papers to solve. Perhaps it is not their own fault. But at any rate I am safe in declaring that the examiner who drew up the Arithmetic and Algebra paper of this morning are very learned gentlemen. They evidently think nothing of eleven questions (including nearly a score of separate sums) to be answered in three hours, and they positively revel in fractions. I was extremely refreshed by my study of the said paper—it will help to keep up the credit of the University, and to keep down the number of matriculated applicants for Government employment. I only doubt whether passing is cheaply secured.
